Editor, Benjamin S. Orlove

Sponsored by the Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research, Inc.

At the forefront of anthropological research and debate, Current Anthropology encompasses the full range of humanistic and scientific anthropological scholarship, studying human cultures and other primate species. CA interprets a wide variety of areas including social, cultural, and biological anthropology, as well as ethnology and ethnohistory, archaeology and prehistory, folklore, and linguistics.

Increased Frequency

Beginning in 2006, Current Anthropology will begin publishing an additional issue—bringing the total to six issues per year. The features that have distinguished CA will remain, and will be enhanced by an updated layout and cover design.
