

Information for Authors

The following specifications will facilitate publication and minimize editorial changes.

Submissions are considered for publication on the understanding that the author offers ANTHROPOS an exclusive option for publication. It is the responsibility of the author to obtain permission for any previously published material. The editors reserve the right to make editorial revisions, but will not make major changes without the author's approval. The evaluation of manuscripts may take several months.

Double spacing is required for all materials, including quotations, references cited, notes, captions, and headings. Manuscripts must be typed on one side only of good-quality bond paper. Two copies must be submitted. Authors of accepted articles may submit a copy of their manuscript on disk.

All manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract (in English) of not more than 100 words and by relevant data about the author's academic career and status and his major publications. The abstract should end with a bracketed list of five or six index words or phrases.

References Cited, abstract, tables, and illustrations should be presented on separate sheets. Footnotes should be kept to a minimum and numbered consecutively. Book reviews should contain no footnotes and no bibliography.

References to publications should be included in the text, not in the footnotes. They should be given by the name of the author, the year of publication, and the number of the page, e.g.:

[...] as Sapir has noted (1921: 39) ...

Sapir has already said: "All grammars leak" (1921: 39).

[...] the well-known maxim: "All grammars leak" (Sapir 1921: 39) ...

The References Cited (Zitierte Literatur, Références citées) should be presented according to the following model:

Fowler, Catherine, and Joy Leland

All illustrative material (drawings, charts, maps, diagrams, and photographs) should be submitted in a form suitable for publication without redrawing. Photographs should be good-quality, high contrast, black-and-white glossy prints.

Proofs of articles are sent to authors who must check them for typographical errors. Corrected proofs should be returned as soon as possible; if proofs are not returned in time, the editors will send their own corrected proofs to the printers. All changes and additions by an author are suggestions only and may be disregarded at the discretion of the editors. Authors may be billed for their alterations.

Authors of articles receive 30, reviewers 2 free offprints.
