

- Wigan: *Inés kababaan,
ta énta kud tontónan,
nanáwid ed nakuygán.*
- Búgan: *Énak diuadinasidn, dána dusadusaysáyan
taðw ay langigitan.*
- W.: *Búgan kababaan,
ta énak et buátan,
ta isúna san dánan,
sópon dan kinoldóan,
ay kay man ya kawitan.*
- B.: *Paytökenta ed suydán, iwinwinísan búgan
éna kalalakian.*
- W.: *Siá dam et naúdan,
ta éyak buátan,
ta isúna san dánan.*
- B.: Anéy siá pay kay man.
- W.: Paytökenta 'd soboán, búgan kababaan.
- B.: *Alá wen ay sey-án,
ta ek iwinwinísan
ay indýan si wigan,
napika 'd katan-óan.*
- W.: *Ines kababaian,
ay nabbáyka s'dín dánan,
ta énta ideglán,
sáta kasin ipinsán.*
- B.: *Inés kalalakian,
énta et ay mendádan.*
- W.: Paytökenta 'd kawittán, inés kababaian.
- B.: *Angéy adi ay sey-án,
ta énta timtimamáan
aw mo intó san énta maniyán, sóponta s' kinoldóan,
ya kawitan si bugawísan.*
- W.: Anéy énta mengeyédán, san ilida 'd bukalán.
- B.: *Igdánta kad isán pakpakellán,
ta sáta yudyudúnán.*
- W.: *Way nan nasokiában,
aw sin énta mandán,
ipaytökta s' bubunán.*
- Wigan: Hollo, sister,
please let us see, [ing.
who prayed yesterday even-
- Bugan.: How unfortunate I am, as he is lying down
on the taaw-grass.
- W.: Bugan, sister,
I shall help up your load,
as it is a very long road,
the contribution is rice,
and a cock.
- B.: Let us come down at Suydan, Bugan follows
her brother.
- W.: Be patient anyway,
I shall help up your load,
as it is a very long road.
- B.: Ah! let it be so though.
- W.: Let us come down at Soboan, Búgan, sister.
- B.: Be it so,
I shall follow
Wigan,
who started at cock-crow.
- W.: Hollo, sister,
you are tired of walking,
let us have a smoke,
and then we shall go on again.
- B.: Hollo, brother,
let us go.
- W.: Let us come down at Kawittan, hollo, sister.
- B.: All right, be it so,
let us look down to see where we shall pass the night,
our contribution is rice,
and a cock.
- W.: Ah! let us go,
to the town of Bukalan.
- B.: Let us walk please to the pakpakellan-tree,
and stoop our heads.
- W.: To the house with its mended let us go, [roof,
let us come down on the ridge.